

This is our Postify System Guide database , the first entity set is user_registration the information that included to it are ,username,email,password_hash,first_name,last_name,middle_name,birthdate,created_at,updated_at, application_name,authorization_token and has a primary key of user_id.

The next there is the login_table that has attribute of login_time,logout_name,first_name,last_name ,birthdate and has a primary key of login_id,user_id

The third entity set is user_post it has a attribute of post_content,created_at,updated_at and primary key of user_id and post_id

The last set is the image_table which have attribute of image_path,upload_date and primary key of image_id,post_id and user_id